CHARITY DAY POLICY

The Charity Day is an IQAC initiative to render social service to the society. The appointments of its members are made by the Secretary and Correspondent and the Principal of our college. It's framed with the sole purpose of invoking a regular affinity towards charity and encouraging young minds to a regular involvement in sympathy, empathy and kindness. It was started in the year 2020-2021. An account is maintained for honest and transparent transactions. All the members are present or informed while the amount is collected, counted, deposited and withdrawn. Charity Day donations should be collected on the first Monday every month.

Objectives:

1. To Guide the youngsters in virtuous deeds.
2. To assist the financially backward community.
3. To contribute towards community welfare.
4. To have all the stakeholders contribute for the noble cause.
5. To serve the needy outsiders.
6. To educate the youngsters for a service morale.
7. To involve all the students for readily and happily donate.
8. To create awareness about the right form of charity.
9. To enable the truly needy to approach and get benefitted with dignity.
10. To give the best and earnest to the society.
